

CHARLESTOWN HIGH SCHOOL

Homecoming

“In the Spirit of Service” Week

Join the Charlestown High School Student Council, along with Charlestown Middle School, Jonathan Jennings Elementary, and Pleasant Ridge Elementary, as we celebrate this year’s basketball homecoming while providing for those in need. We are... Charlestown!

Monday, January 14th—Don’t Sweat It Day

Wear your favorite sweats!

(SENIORS, bring in hygiene products--chapstick, deodorant, brushes, combs, ponytails--for the youth shelter)

Tuesday, January 15th—Crazy Hair Day

Wear your craziest hair do!

(JUNIORS, bring in hair care products for Haven House Homeless Shelter)

Wednesday, January 16th—Awareness Day

Wear your favorite tee for a cause for awareness!

(TEACHERS, Bring in $2 and wear jeans for Riley Children’s Hospital along with your favorite awareness shirt. (Alzheimer’s, Cancer, EB, POW/MIA, etc.)

Thursday, January 17th—Wacky Sock Day

Wear your wackiest socks!

(SOPHOMORES, bring in socks for North Clark Outreach)

Girls’ Basketball Homecoming King’s Crowning will take place between the JV and Varsity games against Salem tonight. Tip-Off is at 6:00 P.M.*

Friday, January 18th—Mascot Day

Wear your favorite mascot attire!

(FRESHMEN, bring in cat supplies for Clark County Animal Shelter)

Boys’ Basketball Homecoming Queen’s Crowning will take place between the JV and Varsity games against Eastern tonight. Tip-Off is at 6:00 P.M.*

For each and every donation you bring on your assigned day (or every day if you want), your class will receive a predetermined number of points. We will keep track of all points and at the end of the day Friday, the class who has given the most will receive FREE admission to the boys’ basketball homecoming game with a student ID and while wearing a Charlestown t-shirt of some type!
