

The Varsity Girls Basketball Holiday Tournament at Charlestown High School

Charlestown
Lady Pirates

Clarksville
Lady Generals

Providence
Lady Pioneers

Silver Creek
Lady Dragons

The Charlestown Varsity Girls Basketball Holiday Tournament, is the oldest girl's tournament in the state with the same four teams. Since 1976 the tournament has been held at Charlestown High School (IN); and including the girl's high school varsity basketball teams of the Clarksville HS Generals, the Providence HS Pioneers, the Silver Creek Dragons, and the host Charlestown HS Pirates. The tournament games are decided by draw, and include one first round game for each team the first night of the tournament, followed the second night by a consolation game for the losers of the first round; and a championship game for the winners of the first round. Tournament awards include a championship trophy, the Butch Troutman MVP award, and the selection of a seven girl All-Tourney team. This holiday time tournament is one of the most historic in all of the rich traditions of Indiana High School Basketball.
